

A patient is admitted with symptoms of an acute ischemic stroke, including right-sided hemiparesis and aphasia. A non-contrast CT scan of the head ruled out hemorrhage. The patient is within the 4.5-hour window for thrombolysis and will be administered intravenous alteplase (tPA).