

This report discusses the diagnosis of multiple sclerosis (MS) in a 34-year-old female. MRI of the brain and spine revealed multiple periventricular and juxtacortical demyelinating plaques, consistent with MS. Treatment with a disease-modifying therapy (DMT) like dimethyl fumarate is recommended.