

This case study reviews the management of atrial fibrillation (AFib). The patient, a 72-year-old male, was started on anticoagulation therapy with apixaban to mitigate stroke risk, calculated using the CHA2DS2-VASc score. Rate control was achieved with metoprolol.