

This infant is being seen for a 2-month well-child visit. Growth parameters are tracking along the 50th percentile. The visit will include administration of routine immunizations, including the DTaP, Hib, and polio vaccines, and a discussion on developmental milestones.