

The pathology report confirms a diagnosis of Stage II invasive ductal carcinoma of the breast. The tumor is estrogen receptor-positive (ER+), progesterone receptor-positive (PR+), and HER2-negative. The recommended treatment protocol is neoadjuvant chemotherapy followed by lumpectomy and radiation therapy.