

A 70-year-old patient presents with rapidly progressive cognitive decline and myoclonus. An MRI shows cortical ribboning on diffusion-weighted imaging. Cerebrospinal fluid analysis is positive for 14-3-3 protein, raising high suspicion for Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease.